

Letter of Recommendation: Mr. Bryant Burns

JULY 2014

To whom it may concern,

I would like to strongly endorse Bryant for any executive position inside your organization. He is that adaptable, smart, energetic, and creative that he brings instant value regardless of the position.

This is a rare attribute and is worthy of your full attention when considering Bryant for employment. He is a force of positive thinking, and is an outstanding adviser with tremendous experience that makes him very insightful.

His integrity is impeccable, and this says much about Bryant's character and value to the business culture.

His tenacity and energy is that of someone you only see in youth. His can do attitude is contagious and very beneficial to company momentum.

Sincerely,

Lou Niles
